GINGERBREAD

This product probably comes from the Orient, brought to Italy in the XVI century along with the spices of which it is rich. In our country it is diffused in Emilia Romagna and Umbria, even if similar sweets are present on the Christmas tables of many regions. To exalt traditional Campania tastes, Cinesensi characterize Panpepato with the typical pisto, a mixture of very perfumed and aromatic spices.

TOZZE

Cornerstone of the traditional Christmas confectionery of Campania, the spongy tozze are characterized by the unmistakable aroma of Strega liqueur in which they are soaked before being covered with a thin layer of fine dark chocolate. The absence of ingredients of animal origin makes them suitable for lactose-intolerant, vegetarian and vegan.

MOSTACCIOLI

Tied to the use of the must, natural sweetener in the ancient peasant recipes, mostaccioli are a fundamental in the traditional confectionery of Campania. They are characteristic for their aroma of spices and their classical diamond shape.

The softness of the biscuit combined with the crunchiness of the shell made of fine dark chocolate, make this product surprising and well known all over the world. Other versions, without spices, have cherry jam, hazelnuts cream or white chocolate filling.

PANETTONE

With its typical cylindrical base and dome shape, panettone is the historical memory of Christmas traditional sweets. Using only yeast mother combined with the ingredients of the original ancient recipe, our panettone is characterized by a delicate hydro-alcoholic syrup (14° vol) that has double function: preserves and gives fragrance. It leaves the taste unchanged and confers aroma and softness.
